ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE MARKET

ENGIE BRASIL ENERGIA S.A. ("Company"), pursuant to the provision in CVM Resolution 80/2022 and the Novo Mercado Regulations, at a meeting of the Board of Directors held as of today's date, wishes to announce the approval of the reelection of the current members of the Statutory Audit Committee ("Committee"), Manoel Eduardo Lima Lopes and Antonio Carlos Corrêa Benavides together with the election of a new member, Paulo Maurício Mantuano de Lima, to the position of coordinator of the Committee. The election of Mr. Mantuano de Lima is in replacement of Paulo de Resende Salgado, who has resigned from his position as a member and coordinator of the Committee in the light of his election as alternate member of the Company's Fiscal Council.

Mr. Mantuano de Lima graduated in Economics from Universidade Gama Filho and has a postgraduate Executive MBA degree from COPPEAD and an MBA in Corporate Finance from Fundação Getúlio Vargas. He began his professional career in the financial market in Banco Nacional S.A. where he held various managerial positions. Between 1998 and 2018, he worked in the electric energy sector, having held among others, the positions of Financial Manager at ENGIE Brasil Energia S.A. and Chief Financial and Administration Officer at Jirau Energia S.A., as well as senior positions in other companies in the sector, including service on the Fiscal Councils of the Company and Transportadora Associada de Gás (TAG).

The term of office of the Committee's members will run for two years as from today.

The Company wishes to thank Paulo Salgado for his contribution to the Company over the period in which he exercised his functions on the Committee, and wishes success to the newly elected member, as well as to the reelected members.

Florianópolis, April 30, 2026.
