ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE MARKET

ENGIE Brasil Energia celebrates its continuance in the ISE and Dow Jones Best-in-Class Emerging Markets indexes

Florianópolis, May 04, 2026 – ENGIE BRASIL ENERGIA S.A. ("ENGIE" or "Company") (B3: EGIE3, ADR: EGIEY) announces to the market at large that it remains part of the Corporate Sustainability Index (ISE) of B3 – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão S.A. ("B3"), as well as of the Dow Jones Best-in-Class Emerging Markets Index.

The Company is part of the ISE for the 21st consecutive year, with a 2.5% share of the portfolio, achieving 5th place overall, the best performance in the electricity sector. This edition included 69 companies from 38 sectors. To compose the Index, B3 analyzes hundreds of indicators that assess the practices adopted by companies in the corporate environment, distributed across six dimensions: environment, corporate governance and senior management, human capital, business model and innovation, social capital, and climate change.

Additionally, the Company consolidated its position in the Dow Jones Best-in-Class Emerging Markets index, which comprises sustainability leaders from emerging markets identified by S&P Global through the Corporate Sustainability Assessment (CSA) questionnaire. It aims to represent the top 10% of the 800 largest companies in emerging markets based on long-term economic, environmental, and social criteria.

"These recognitions reflect the Company's ongoing efforts in evolving its processes and the strong commitment of our team to the sustainability pillars that guide our business. Respect for the planet and for people, especially our stakeholders, as well as a commitment to long-term prosperity, remains a top priority in all our activities, which is clearly reflected in these results", comments Eduardo Sattamini, Company's Chief Executive.
