ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE MARKET

ENGIE BRASIL ENERGIA S.A., a publicly listed company with registered offices in the city of Florianópolis, state of Santa Catarina at Rua Paschoal Apóstolo Pítsica, 5064, enrolled in the tax register (CNPJ) under number 02.474.103/0001-19 ("ENGIE" or "Company"), pursuant to the provisions of CVM Instructions 358/2002 and 480/2009, wishes to inform its investors and the market at large that in a press release published today, Fitch Ratings ("Agency") reaffirmed its Long-Term National Rating at 'AAA(bra)' with a stable outlook and on the global scale, the Long-Term IDRs (Issuer Default Ratings) in foreign currency at 'BB' and on the local scale at 'BBB-' (BBB minus), both with a negative outlook, due to the limitation imposed by the sovereign rating, albeit still one notch above the latter.

The Agency also reiterated its 'AAA (bra)' rating with a stable outlook for the Company's sixth, seventh and ninth unsecured debenture issues.

According to the Agency's press release, ENGIE's ratings reflect its prominent market position as the largest private electric energy generation company in Brazil with a sizeable and diversified portfolio, operational efficiency and robust operating cash flow generation derived from the existence of long-term power purchase agreements with its clients. The Company's credit profile also benefits from a conservative financial profile with historical low leverage and strong financial flexibility to deal with financing needs resulting from investments in new projects and acquisitions.
