ANNOUNCEMENT TO THE MARKET

ENGIE BRASIL ENERGIA S.A., a publicly listed company with registered offices in the city of Florianópolis, state of Santa Catarina at Rua Paschoal Apóstolo Pítsica, 5064, enrolled in the tax register (CNPJ) under number 02.474.103/0001-19 ("ENGIE" or "Company"), pursuant to the CVM Resolution No. 44, of August 23, 2021, wishes to inform its investors and the market at large that in a press release published today, Fitch Ratings ("Agency") reaffirmed its Long-Term National Rating at 'AAA(bra)' with a stable outlook and on the global scale, the Long-Term IDRs (Issuer Default Ratings) in foreign currency at 'BB' and on the local scale at 'BBB-' (BBB minus), both with a negative outlook, due to the limitation imposed by the sovereign rating, albeit still one notch above the latter.

The Agency also reiterated its 'AAA (bra)' rating with a stable outlook for the Company's sixth, seventh, ninth and tenth unsecured debenture issues.

According to the press release, the Agency states that ENGIE's ratings reflect "its prominent market position as the largest private electric energy generation company in Brazil. The company presents a successful track record in its commercial strategy and monthly allocation of its assured capacity, also benefiting from the dilution of operational risks through its diversified asset base. The recent entrance into the transmission segment provides further diversification and improves predictability to operating cash flow."
