M INUTES OF THE 109th MEETING OF THE FISCAL COUNCIL OF ENGIE Brasil Energia S.A., held on February 23 and 25, 2026

On the 23rd (twenty-three) day of the month of February in the year two thousand and twenty-six beginning at 2:30 p.m. and concluding at 5:30 p.m. and suspended until the 25th (twenty-five) of February beginning at 2:00 p.m. and concluding at 2:30 p.m., the following effective members of the Fiscal Council of ENGIE Brasil Energia S.A. met through the medium of the Teams platform: Carla Carvalho de Carvalho, Marcelo Cardoso Malta and Anderson Paiva Martins, with the following Agenda of the Day: 1. Analysis of the Financial Statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025; 2. Examination of the Company's proposal for distribution of dividends; 3. Examination of the Company's Plans for investments; 4. Examination of Budgetary Execution; 5. Examination of the Annual Management Report; 6. Presentation of an update on judicial processes; and 7. General Matters associated with the duties of the Fiscal Council. Also participating were Paulo Maurício Mantuano de Lima, Manoel Eduardo Bouzan de Almeida and Jorge Miguel de Bessa Menezes, alternate members of the Fiscal Council as invitees. The meeting was presided by Councilor Carla Carvalho de Carvalho and as secretary, André Budal Arins Resendes. Opening, the Chair thanked the presence of all and moved on to the first item on the Agenda of the Day: 1 – Analysis of the Financial Statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025: At the request of the members of the Fiscal Council, Romary dos Anjos Silva, manager of the Accounting Department, had provided pre-meeting clarifications on the Financial Statements for the fiscal year 2025. The Chair gave the floor to Romary dos Anjos Silva, who presented and provided clarifications on the main factors influencing the results for the fiscal year 2025 when compared to 2024, pointing out in particular the variation in Adjusted EBITDA and Adjusted Net Income and the key drivers of the result versus the fiscal year 2024. She also presented the main events of fiscal year 2025, such as: a) the startup of full commercial operations of the Serra do Assuruá Wind Complex (installed capacity of 846 MW) in December 25, and of the Assú Sol Photovoltaic Complex (installed capacity of 752 MW) in February 26; b) the first section of the Asa Branca Transmission System began commercial operations in November 2025, representing 33% of the project's total RAP; c) the Company continues to be included in S&P's Sustainability Yearbook, featuring among the top 5% in the global electric utilities sector; d) inclusion in the CDP (Carbon Disclosure Project) A-list, with maximum scores in Climate and Water, reflecting environmental sustainability strategies; e) establishment of the Special Independent Committee for Transactions with Related Parties to advise on the analysis of the potential transfer of the controlling company's stake in the Jirau Hydropower Plant; f) implementation of an increase in capital stock with the issuance of new shares, distributed to shareholders as a bonus, at a ratio of 1 for every 2.5 common shares, approved in November 2025; g) the proposal for the distribution of earnings for 2025, to be submitted to the General Shareholders Meeting, representing a 55% payout. Subsequently, the chair gave the floor to Adilvo Franca, partner at Ernst & Young Auditores Independentes S/S Ltda. and Henrique Berengan and Giovana Dallabrida, both senior managers, who initially gave a presentation on the work performed, addressing the procedures adopted in the execution of the independent audit of the Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2025. Questions raised at the board meeting were duly clarified. After discussions pertinent to the information provided and the clarifications received on the points raised and including the explanatory notes, the members of the Fiscal Council, at a meeting held on February 25, 2026, subsequent to the Board of Directors assessment of the Financial Statements and following receipt of the final report from Ernest & Young Auditores Independentes S/S Ltda., concluded their analysis of the Financial Statements, identifying no material facts that warranted disclosure. Moving on to the second item on the Agenda of the Day, namely 2 – Examination of the Company's proposal for distribution of dividends: Manager Romary dos Anjos Silva presented the management proposal and the corresponding amounts for allocation of net income and distribution of dividends, to be submitted to the General Shareholders Meeting, as shown in the Statements of Changes in Shareholders' Equity: a) Tax Incentive Reserve; b) Legal Reserve; c) Distribution of Dividends and Interest on Equity, composed as follows: (i) Interim Dividends for the first half of the year, declared in the 278th Meeting of the Board of Directors, dated August 7, 2025; (ii) Minimum mandatory dividends; (iii) Interest on Equity approved in the 287th Meeting of the Board of Directors, dated December 12, 2025; and (iv) Additional dividends; and d) Retained earnings reserve. After relevant discussions on the information provided and receiving clarifications on the points raised, the members of the Fiscal Council concluded their analysis on the allocation and distribution of dividends at a further meeting held on February 25, 2026, subsequent to the assessment of the matter by the Board of Directors, finding no relevant facts worthy of note. The Chair then moved on to the third item on the Agenda of the Day, 3 – Examination of the Company's Plans for investments: Manager Romary dos Anjos Silva presented the proposed investment plans, based on retained earnings, which pursuant to Article 196 of Law 6,404/76, seek to support the Capital Budget for the fiscal years 2026, 2027, and 2028, which considers the Investment Program, whose amounts are intended for direct application in the maintenance of the productive complex and investment in new projects. After pertinent discussions as to the information provided and receiving clarifications on the points raised, the members of the Fiscal Council, at the subsequent meeting held on February 25, 2026, after evaluation of the Capital Budget by the Board of Directors, concluded the analysis of the investment plans, identifying no relevant facts that warranted recording. Moving on to the fourth item on the Agenda of the Day, 4 – Examination of Budgetary Execution: Roberto Fleck, manager of the Financial Planning and Control Organizational Unit, presented the budget performance for the 2025 fiscal year, providing clarification on the main events that influenced execution of the budget. Questions raised by councilors at the meeting were clarified. Proceeding forward to the fifth item on the Agenda of the Day, 5 – Examination of the Annual Management Report: Leonardo Germano Depiné and Caio Miralles de Araujo, manager and sustainability analyst of the Company's Investor Relations Organizational Unit, respectively, presented the proposed Annual Management Report for fiscal year 2025, addressing the main topics of the report and providing clarifications on questions raised. After examination and based on the information provided by the Company's management, the Members of this Fiscal Council, at its subsequent meeting held on February 25, 2026 and after due analysis of the Annual Management Report on the part of the Board of Directors, are of the opinion that the Annual Management Report complies with legal requirements and can be reviewed by shareholders at the General Shareholders Meeting. Moving on to the sixth item on the Agenda of the Day, 6 – Presentation of an update on judicial processes: Caio Barcaroli Castro, the Company's legal coordinator, presented and provided clarifications on the arbitration proceedings involving the Company's claim to full compensation from the GSF on behalf of the Itá Hydropower Plant. The arbitration process determined that the Company has this right and, despite requests for clarification submitted by the counterparty, the arbitral tribunal upheld the decision. In addition, José Augusto Garcia provided clarifications on the process involving the migration of the management of the Elos benefit plan to Previg and to determine responsibility for the payment of the verified deficits. The Company lodged the appropriate appeals and is awaiting the respective ruling. The questions raised by the board members at its meeting were clarified. Moving on the seventh and last item on the Agenda of the Day, 7 – General Matters associated with the duties of the Fiscal Council: Romary dos Anjos Silva informed Council members that the change of the independent auditor would be submitted to the Board of Directors for evaluation, with the aim of capturing synergies in the audit processes within the ENGIE Group. One of the councilors raised the issue of a possible conflict with respect to independence and this will be analyzed by the Company. The Chair then notified that the proceedings would be suspended and resumed on February 25, 2026, at 2:00 p.m., to analyze any changes decided by the Company's Board of Directors at a meeting scheduled for 9:00 a.m. on February 25, 2026, particularly with regard to the Annual Management Report, the Financial Statements, and the proposals for the allocation of profits and capital budget, which had been previously examined and on which the Fiscal Council must opine. Reopening the meeting at 2 p.m. on February 25, 2026, the Chair informed members that the Board of Directors had not decided on any changes to the Annual Management Report, Financial Statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025, nor to the proposals for the allocation of net income for the fiscal year and the capital budget, and that the Independent Auditor's Report on the Individual and Consolidated Financial Statements had been issued on this date (February 25, 2025) without qualification. The examination of the items on the Agenda Day was concluded, and no material facts worthy of note were identified. Thus, the Management Report, the Financial Statements, and the proposals for the allocation of net income for the fiscal year and the capital budget comply with legal requirements and are recommended for review by the shareholders at the General Shareholders' Meeting.: "OPINION OF THE FISCAL COUNCIL – The undersigned members of the Fiscal Council of ENGIE Brasil Energia S.A., in compliance with legal and statutory provisions, have examined the Management Report and Financial Statements consisting of the balance sheet as of December 31, 2025, and the income statements for the fiscal year; consolidated result; changes in shareholders' equity; cash flow and value added for the fiscal year ended on that date, the respective explanatory notes, as well as the following proposal for the allocation of net income for the fiscal year: a) Tax Incentive Reserve – R$ 1,460 thousand; b) Legal Reserve – R$ 129,142 thousand; c) Distribution of Dividends and Interest on Equity in the total amount of R$ 1,376,958 thousand, corresponding to R$ 1.20542677239 per share, composed as follows: (i) Interim Dividends for the first half of the year, declared in the 278th RCA, dated August 7, 2025, in the amount of R$ 719,185 thousand (R$ 0.62959424927 per share); (ii) Minimum mandatory dividends – R$ 31,883 thousand (R$ 0.02791126295 per share); (iii) Interest on Equity approved in the 287th RCA, dated December 12, 2025, in the gross amount of R$ 100,000 thousand (R$ 0.08754276626 per share); and (iv) Additional dividends – R$ 525,890 thousand (R$ 0.46037849391 per share); d) Retained earnings reserve – R$ 1,126,602 thousand. The purpose of this retention is to support, pursuant to Article 196 of Law No. 6,404/76, the Capital Budget for the fiscal years 2026, 2027, and 2028, the relative Investment Program in the amounts of R$ 2,419,315 thousand, R$ 2,946,445 thousand, and R$ 285,311 thousand, respectively, intended for direct use in the maintenance of the production complex and investment in new ventures. Based on the examinations performed and also considering the report of the independent auditors, ERNST & YOUNG Auditores Independentes S.S. Ltda., issued without qualifications on February 25, 2026, as well as the information and clarifications received from management representatives throughout the fiscal year, the members of the Fiscal Council are of the opinion that the documents under review, including the capital budget, as well as the proposal for the allocation of net income for the fiscal year approved by the Board of Directors on February 25, 2026, are in a condition to be reviewed by the shareholders at the Company's next General Shareholders Meeting. Conclusion: The floor being given for further manifestations and none being forthcoming, the president declared the work of the meeting concluded, thanking the participation of all and the clarifications on questions raised, requesting the drafting of these minutes by myself as secretary, and which having been read and found in conformity, were approved and signed by the members of the Fiscal Council denominated below, and by myself, the secretary, through the medium of the digital platform. All files with the presentations rendered shall be maintained at the Company as attachments to these minutes.
